Yellow Rose of Texas Republican Women

The Yellow Rose of Texas Republican Women invites you to join us in these exciting political times. Although we are a very young club, chartering in 2007, we'd like to become the strongest united voice. We are building a truly conservative Republican club that focuses on political issues and not social issues. The more true conservative Republican women involved in the political process, the louder our voices will be, the more united the Party will be, and ultimately, the better our country can be. Not sure you are or want to be a Republican? Not sure if you want to be affiliated with a political party? Not sure you're interested in politics? Come meet us and learn about the issues that affect you and your families. We'd like to share our journey with you! Please don't hesitate to get involved on the ground floor with the Yellow Rose of Texas Republican Women.

Our web site is www.yellowroserw.com. We have lots of information on it so members can be informed.
